Help me remember:
Notetaking!

Today we will talk about...

How can I remember what we do in class?

But how do I know what to write

And how can I do it?

Write notes!

Let me show you!

Important language

Look for ‘Important language’ at the top of the page

There might be other things you can make notes on, too

This will show you what is important in the class

Do make notes on:

Words
Grammar
Pronunciation
Example sentences
When/ why/ how to use them

Don’t make notes on:

Activities instructions
Group points

Language practice

The finals are coming

What is a good answer?

Answer the question
Accurate
Don't wait to answer
No 'umming' or 'ah-ing'

What questions might the teacher ask?

Important language

What did you do yesterday?	I visited my grandparents and baked a cake (yesterday)
What did she (name) do yesterday?	She visited her grandparents and baked a cake
Did you (play the piano) yesterday?	Yes, I did. I played the piano for 4 hours yesterday afternoon
	No, I didn't. I played video games, yesterday
Did (your brother) (play video games yesterday?	No, he didn't. Our dad doesn't like us playing video games.

Now try this

Change the words in red and ask again

1) Tell the teacher a story from your weekend. Remember to use the past simple

2) Talk about your father daily life. Remember he/she + s

3) Tell the teacher a fable. Remember: use past simple.

Say enough! ≥8 sentences
Use what we have learned!
Get your grammar and pronunciation right!
Answer the question!

Language practice

Ask your partners a question?
Take a card and answer the questions
Your questions have to be about the past!

What did you do yesterday?
(turn card) She...
Did you have breakfast yesterday yesterday?
(turn card) I...
What did (Betty) do yesterday?
(turn card) Yes, I did. I...
No, I ____ yesterday

Answer the questions

Ask your partner:
What do you do on Saturdays
Why do you do it?

Make your own role-play

Why did...?
Make your own 'Why-Because' dialogue chains
How many links can you get?
Remember: Your 'because' has to answer the 'why'
Like the book, but change it to the past!

Over the weekend...

The school was broken into and all the grade 4 test papers were stolen!

The police think it was one of you!

You are a police officer... or a suspect

Suspects:
> Work together to create a story of where you were and what you did.
> Remember, if your story is different from the others the police will think it was you!

The police:
> Work together to think of questions to ask the suspects.
> Find whose story is different!
